for putting education first.

This is my friend...

KENDI.

We like to meet under our favorite big tree.

We go to school together and learn lots of things.

We run and play football once the bell rings.

Sometimes we picnic down by the lake,

Kayla brings fruit and I bring cake.

We like to sing and dance
when it's rainy or sunny.

We like to talk and laugh and just be funny.

Kendi is living with HIV.

And that's okay with me.

My Mum makes sure
I take my medicine
twice a day.

And after I do,
I like to say...

Now I am as STRONG as an ELEPHANT...

As FAST
as a CHEETAH...

And BRAVE
like a LION!

But sometimes
I feel sick and I have to say...

I feel sleepy throughout the day.

An illustration of two children lying on their stomachs on a grassy hill, looking up at a large, white, elephant-shaped cloud in a blue sky. The child in the foreground is wearing a blue dress and has their hands behind their head. The child in the background is wearing a red dress. An open book and a yellow bag are on the ground near them.

That's when we lie on the grass and just watch
the clouds.

Or sit and read quietly
away from the crowds.

I am happy KAYLA is my friend.

She tells me again and again...

You are as STRONG
as an ELEPHANT,

As FAST
as a CHEETAH...

And the BRAVEST boy I know !
