

ACT TO CHANGE LAWS THAT ~~DISCRIMINATE~~

Should young people who want to take an HIV test have to ask their parents' permission?

45 countries require people younger than 18 years to have parental consent to access HIV testing services.

Photo: UNICEF/Giacomo Pirozzi